'Lentebloom'

Lentebloom was made in 2010 as a community driven production. It reached 65000 farms nationally in South Africa.

Lentebloom is now stirring up interest over the world. It was entered into the American Christian Film Festival. The ACFF presents awards on a monthly basis, and from the monthly winners an annual winner is chosen. Recently the producers received notice that Lentebloom is indeed the (October 2016?) winner of a number of awards, as follows:
