'Tussen as en hoop'

'Tussen as en hoop' was made in 2010 as a community driven production, only weeks after the first film, 'Lentebloom'.

'Tussen as en hoop' has now followed in the footsteps of 'Lentebloom', stirring up interest over the world. It was entered into the American Christian Film Festival. The ACFF presents awards on a monthly basis, and from the monthly winners an annual winner is chosen. The month after the producers received notice that Lentebloom is indeed the (October 2016?) winner of a number of awards, 'Tussen as en hoop' was also crowned – as follows:

Best Foreign Film

Best Director (Albert Maritz, Desmond Denton, Jonathan Myburgh)

Best Actor (Andre Samuels – Jan)

Best Actress (Charlene Truter - Petra)

Best Actor Supporting (Andre Rossouw – Mosie)

Best Actor Teen (Jumaine Hansen – Lucky)
